Vet thanks WW II rescuers

After his plane was shot down over Holland in 1944, David Alford "ran like hell for two days and two nights before a farmer took me in."

The retired Air Force colonel recalls the date — Feb. 14, 1944 — like yesterday.

Alford, 69, of Wichita, Kan., says he's alive today thanks to the farmer and Johanna Marie "Joke" Folmer, who hid him from Germans.

They're among the 250 people attending a World War II reunion sponsored by Air Forces Escape and Evasion Society this week in Atlanta.

"I have a lot of gratitude to all the Dutch people," said Alford. "They saved my bacon."

"No. We are the ones who thank you," said Folmer, 63. "You are the ones who helped us fight the Germans."

With Focke Wulfes high at six o'clock
With Messerschmitts at ten
With Focke Wulfes diving through the top
To climb and dive again.

Another boring in at twelve
With neon leading edge;
Nine men can be oblivious,
But one of ten must hedge.

Oh pity the poor co-pilot
His wavering glance belied,
He gazes at the instruments
With fighters in his eyes:

Although it looks like July the 4th
The pilot never shirks
His eyes are on the leading ship
Not on the fireworks.

Navigator and Bombardier
Are wont to view the fight,
As do the eager crewman six
Through a machine gun sight.

Oh God, pity the poor co-pilot,
His forehead dripping wet;
Nine men are working for their lives
While he for ten must sweat.

"WOMEN IN THE RESISTANCE"

This excellent book by Dr. Margaret Rossiter is difficult to find in the Bookstores so AFEES has purchased Copies direct from the publisher for resale to our members. The first purchase was sold out in two days, we are now in the process of placing a re-order.

If you would like to have a copy of this recently published book on women in the resistance please send your check in the amount of $13 to Heyward Spinks, P.O. Box 844 Beaufort S. C. 29902. This will cover the cost of the book and postage.

ANNE BRUSSELMANS

We are still working on obtaining permanent residency in the U.S. for Anne Brusselmans. This is a painfully slow process but Anne is patiently waiting for the wheels of Congress to grind out H.R. 853. Dwight Fry an AFEES member who was helped by "Madame Anne" has been working on this project since our Atlanta meeting. In addition Case Hanou is working through friends who have friends in high places to get some action on this unduly complicated project. Any ideas, thoughts or suggestions should be directed to Dwight Fry.

DIRECTORS VOTE TO GO TO SAN ANTONIO IN MAY 1987

By majority vote the Board of Directors of the AFEES voted to hold our next meeting in San Antonio Texas in May of 1987. Jim Goebel had previously volunteered to be chairman of the next meeting so we are off and running towards making this the biggest and best meeting AFEES has ever had. This will be a very big order given the success of the last meeting in Atlanta.

There was a school of thought that said that a meeting every year was too often. In view of the vote to hold a meeting in 1987 we certainly will look very carefully at 1988 before we decide whether, or where, or when to hold the next meeting. We will ask for a membership vote at our San Antonio meeting in May 1987. You will be notified shortly after exact dates and hotels in San Antonio have been chosen, but in the meantime hold a couple of weekends open towards the end of May 1987.

AFEES OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS REELECTED

At the general membership meeting Saturday May 24th the membership reelected by acclamation the current officers and directors, in addition David Shoss was elected as a new member of the Board of Directors. WELCOME ABOARD DAVID.

MEMBERSHIP VOTES TO MAKE MAILING LIST AVAILABLE TO MEMBERS

The general membership voted to make our mailing list available to members who write and request a copy. The motion expressly stated that the list was not to be used for commercial purposes.

AFEES PLAQUE AT THE AIR FORCE ACADEMY ?????

David O'Boyle has done a great job of tracking down the requirements for placing an AFEES plaque on the Cemetary Memorial Wall at the Air Force Academy. We are proceeding as rapidly as possible to accomplish this desirable mission.

If we are successful, the plaque will be dedicated "TO THE BRAVE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE RESISTANCE WHO RISKED THEIR LIVES TO HELP AMERICAN AIRMEN DURING WORLD WAR II"

APOLOGIES TO DON W. VOGEL AND DOID RAAB

The editor apologises to Don Vogel and Doid Raab who both sent me copies of newspaper articles that deserved to be printed in this edition of the AFEES Newsletter, I hope that we can include one or both stories in the next edition. Vogel's story gave great prominence to AFEES, thank you Don, and Doid's story tells of his return to Srpska Crnja Yugoslavia.

Château du Bourg-Blanc

Une aile détruite par le feu

CHATEAU DE BOURG-BLANC DESTROYED BY FIRE

The Chateau du Bourg-Blanc, home for many allied airmen during World War II, was destroyed by a fire of mysterious origin earlier this year.

Airey Neave, in his book Saturday at M.I. 9, refers to the Chateau du Bourg-Blanc in writing about Val Williams an agent parachuted into France with Ray LaBrosse on February 28, 1943. "within a week of his arrival in France, he (Williams) was on a visit to Brittany.---Near Paimpol he found what he later describes as a "whole regiment" of American and British airmen, hidden in the Chateau de Bourblanc, by Comte and Comtesse de Mauduit. Comtesse Betty de Mauduit, a most valiant lady, was American. After a search by the Gestapo at the chateau, she was arrested on June 12th 1943, and sent to Ravensbruck concentration camp. There seems little doubt that she was betrayed by 'Roger le Legionnaire' who was now attached to Gestapo headquarters at Rennes." After a sea operation was canceled on May 29th 1943 more than 90 airmen were holed up in Brittany, thirty-nine were hidden by the Comtesse de Mauduit at the Chateau de Bourblanc.

HUGONNET & PATTON REPRESENT AFEES AT MEMORIAL CEREMONY IN FRANCE

On Sunday May 4th Ernest Hugonnet and Ralph Patton represented their crews from the 94th Bomb Group and the AFEES in a ceremony in memory of their 4 crewmen who died near the village of Kergrist Moelou in Western France on January 5, 1944. On Thursday May 8th they represented AFEES in a ceremony at Plage Bonaparte, the departure point for the sea evacuations of Reaseu Shelburn. Patton & Hugonnet were given the VIP treatment at the ceremonies and were wined and dined by their helpers and members of Reaseu Shelburn in between ceremonies. This was Ernie Hugonnet's first trip back to the scene of his evasion so he was received as a long lost son. As president of AFEES Patton was treated as the president of a very prestigious organization. AFEES is regarded very highly as an organization in France, as well as in Holland and Belgium.

Atlanta was successful beyond all of our hopes. There were six countries represented and we were 200 strong for dinner Saturday evening. It is my estimate that almost half of the evaders were attending their first meeting. There were also several meetings of helpers and their airmen for the first time since WWII, this is what makes it all worthwhile.

Southern hospitality is still alive and well in Atlanta. The cooperation and help we received was outstanding. With one exception everyone we dealt with seemed to go above and beyond their normal services to make us welcome. There is no doubt in my mind that everyone who attended will always remember Atlanta very pleasantly.

Ralph's choice of a picture for the front of this news letter has a definite meaning. With the help of Peggy and Ross Weins we conducted our first auction and were almost overwhelmed, the AFEES receipts were $3,080.00. Not only was this financially successful everyone had a most pleasant afternoon as it was being conducted. The Canadians have used this for years and there was doubt in some minds if it would be successful for us, those doubts are forever removed. The quilt made by Dorothy Kenney was the top item bringing $375.00. Items sold from that figure down to $1.00, I would guess we averaged about $20.00 per item. There was something for everyone and most every family made a purchase.

Our schedule turned out very well, we were busy enough but not pushed at any point. On Thursday we visited the Cyclorama and were given VIP treatment. This is an exhibition concerning the Battle of Atlanta during the War of Northern Aggression. From there we went to the City Hall and were received by representatives of Mayor Andrew Young. Our next stop was lunch at the Varsity Drive Inn. The Varsity has fast food service down to a science and we all enjoyed it. After lunch we visited the Atlanta Museum of Art for a very pleasant interlude.

REUNION PLANS

The Italian based 461st and 484th Bomb Groups of WWII will hold their 5th Reunion.

When: November 13th through November 16th, 1986
Where: Marriott Hotel

Contact: Mr. Bud Markel

On Friday we traveled to Stone Mountain and in spite of our one break down in plans we had a pleasant visit. Our lunch was scheduled for delivery at noon and arrived something after 2:00 P.M.. That evening we had dinner at Aunt Fanny's Cabin and fed the group true southern fried chicken, there is something wrong with anyone who does not enjoy fried chicken. Our transportation on both of these days was by bus and the drivers were outstanding.

On Saturday all of our activities were in the host hotel and like everyone else they gave us wonderful treatment. We had our business meeting in the morning, a lunch and the auction at noon and our dinner Saturday evening. We were entertained at dinner by a local choral group who put on a tremendous show.

The thing that makes these meetings worthwhile is the fellowship established. Everyone has a story to tell but are also pleased to hear of other adventures. To an outsider most of these accounts would be unbelievable but we all know how true they are. We not only have the pleasure of meeting our helpers but we get to know the other airmen of our organization.

AFEES 1986

This has been an outstanding year for the organization. Our membership at the moment is 370 which makes our goal of 400 quite possible. We still need help from everyone in publicizing the organization and recruiting anyone you know that is eligible.

We are in sound financial condition however the more funds we have available the more we can do for helpers. As our plans develop for San Antonio hopefully we will be in a position to invite more and more helpers. If you have already paid your dues for 1986 they were appreciated and if not now is a fine time.

WILLIAM J. CASEY, DIRECTOR C.I.A. EXPECTED TO SPEAK AT AFEES BANQUET

William J. (Bill) Casey Director of the C.I.A. and a longtime friend of AFEES had agreed to be our guest speaker at the final dinner of the AFEES reunion at Atlanta but unfortunately he took ill on Friday May 23rd and had to cancel out. The following is excerpted from the speech that he had prepared to deliver to us.

"Happy to be here with European friends who risked their lives to run so splendidly and so bravely those wonderful escape lines. We're glad you're still here and we particularly welcome you to the U.S. We salute you for the pure courage and the amazing ingenuity which brought so many Allied Airmen back to fly and fight again, now more than 40 years ago.

We salute also the airmen here today who put themselves in the hands of those young girls, stayed in those safehouses with all those war widows and maiden aunts, rode those bicycles on those dark and dusty roads, slumbered in those dreary railway coaches, walked across the Pyrenees, waited in Brittany for a boat to take them across to England. How many of them got back to fly again and how important that was to the spirit and morale of all our airmen.

What a wonderful story and how wonderful to have you here to relive it as we reminisce together.

Remember the great Pat O'Leary, his code name, who as much as anyone started it all, It's been one of the great privileges of my life to have been his friend for 40 years and to keep in touch and visit with his lovely wife Sylvia and their children as Pat became Major General Guerise, the Surgeon General of the Belgian Army who now lives in graceful retirement near Waterloo.

And I remember Dedee and Michou and that wonderful girl who when you were here ten years ago, came all the way from Ruanda in darkest Africa, where she had nursed black men and women for almost three decades. The dedication and the code of honor of you and others who created and ran those escape routes has always been an inspiration to those who had any contact with or any knowledge of this epic story. Thankfully it has been well told by James Langley, Donald Darling, and Airey Neave, who ran Margaret Thatcher's campaign for prime minister and was killed so tragically in London by a bomb placed by an Irish terrorist.

Then there are the men who came back to fight on and live on. It's wonderful to have you here today. There are many great tales of contributions to our life and times which would not have been made but for those escape lines. I recall how happy all of us were when we heard of large groups, scores and perhaps hundreds, overrun and liberated in Brittany and Normandy- wasn't it Shelbourne and Bonaparte and Burgundy - or is my memory getting dim. -----

Forty years ago, you all played gallant roles in winning a war that had to be won. You helped stop Nazism dead in its tracks a time when totalitarianism was trying to flex its muscles over the western world.

Today, the west is again at war with totalitarianism, this time in the form of Marxist-Leninism and the Soviet Empire-----"

"ESCAPE & EVASION" by PIERRE SIBIRFL

It is difficult to tell the story of one particular airman shot down over France during the occupation.

In fact, it is impossible to describe teh wild dashes on foot, on bike, by car, by train.

How agile they had to be to avoid the Gestapo, the German Security Service (SICHERHEITS DIENST), over roof tops and garden walls, across fields, rivers and woods.

Each airman's adventures could fill a book. You would have to write as many books as there were airmen saved.

How many were killed, wounded, chased, arrested, sent to prison or died in concentration camps?

How many hours of interrogations, how many days and nights spent in prison cells?

How long spent in solitary confinement?

How many blows and bruises, how many hours spent in boths???

What can one say?

How can one describe the dreams, the anguish, the glimpses of other worlds, real or imaginary dreamt by these allied airmen who, not long before, in Texas, Pennsylvania or Alabama, or yesterday in England, found themselves suspended by the harness of their parachutes in the sky of Brittany!! The same evening welcomed by a farmer in Mael-Carhaix or Locorn or elsewhere in the department of Cotes-du-Nord, or by a resistance fighter F.F.I. !

Where are the words, the poor words which can convey such adventures? Perhaps music.... Maybe a symphony from another world!....

Dear Ralph:

I cannot allow another day to pass without writing to you to thank you and all members of the AFES for your friendship and warm hospitality at Atlanta last week. It was a memorable and heartwarming experience for Isabel and myself.

But in addition to the cheerful "old comrade" aspect of an occasion such as we shared in Atlanta I felt that we were all playing a small but important part in our links with the former occupied countries in Europe and that therefore your choice of principal guest for the dinner on Saturday was most appropriate. Even though you had to read his speech.

God bless you dear Ralph and I greatly look forward to our next meeting wherever that may be.

Yours sincerely,

Frank Dell
Chairman RAFES

Dear Ralph:

Two weeks and thousands of miles from Atlanta our meeting there appeared like a dream. A wonderful dream indeed with so much friendship, so many memories and the extraordinary feeling that all that was done more than forty years ago still exists for those wonderful people of AFES. You organized this meeting so marvellously that I felt at home in a world I belong to.

My return on Sunday was easy except that I landed in London and had to take another plane for Brussels where I had left my car. Monday evening I was back in Paris and Tuesday in my office. I didn't regret a second of this rather surprising travel. On the contrary, I think now that if I did not come I'd have missed a unique experience.

Thank you for all this. A thank you to all of your friends for the perfect organization and for the atmosphere you succeeded to create during this reunion.

Ceci dit mon cher ami merci encore pour tout.

Dear Ralph:

What an unbelievable experience those four days in Atlanta!!! What warmth, what friendship, what feeling of freedom, what peace, what a plus-experience of the remnants of war!
THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! for inviting u

I learned a precious lesson - I should have tried such sooner to contact a group like yours, instead of wondering all those years and trying to forget those miserable war years.

Chers Amis:

Again thank you for the magnificent voyage that we have made thanks to you. We have not stopped talking of our marvelous visit to Atlanta and Stone Mt. and our hotel. Two small Bretons in a large hotel in Atlanta -- who could have imagined it. All of the meetings so congenial, and each person more kind than the other. It is outstanding, each time one has the impression of living a dream.

Encore Merci. Amities sincerees,

Dear Ralph:

We enjoyed very much our stay in Atlanta and all our journey in the U.S.A. Your country is really a wonderful part of the world. The sun was always with us. I regretted only that Gustave was not with me to share my enthusiasm.

We shall never thank you enough for all you did for us and with such friendliness. We spent a marvelous week-end with you all and it is always a great joy to meet all of our friends again.

Anne Brusselmanns gave me a lot of emotions in presenting Ronald Pearce to me. It was the first time I saw him since the war. I had with him and Bill Orndorff quite an adventure in Paris ( we have been followed and we had to escape....)

All my friends join me to say to you how much we are happy and grateful; it was really an upshot.

When I came back, I found Andree de Jongh in a hospital. She had a serious heart attack; but fortunately, she is better now; but still in hospital for a while.

I hope some of you could manage to come at our Comet meeting in October (17/18/19). I don't promise you we would do something so great; but I can assure you we will receive you with our heart; as you did.

Sincerely

What an eye-opener it was! I plan to find our more! but no matter what happens, if I never meet anyone I helped, I profoundly experienced the feeling of mutual admiration and I can only hope that my charges fared as well as the people I met in Atlanta. Thank you for giving me this gift!

RAFES (CANADIAN BRANCH) PRESIDENT LOOKING FOR AMERICANS WE LIVED WITH IN PARIS

Roy Scott, president of the RAFES (Canadian Branch) was hidden in a safe house at Les Invalides in the grounds of the Tomb of Napoleon in Paris with the Morin family (father, Georges, Mother, Denis, and daughter, Yvette). This family hid a total of 80 airmen during the war, most of whom were Americans who stayed only overnight. My mid-upper gunner and I stayed with the family for three weeks along with an American B-17 waist gunner, a Sgt. Joe C. If any of you stayed in that house Roy would very much like to hear from you.

Dear Ralph:

Please accept my sincere apologies for not writing before now to thank you for enabling me to be a guest at your recent reunion in Atlanta.

The reunion was like something one reads about but never expects to be part of. It was just wonderful so much thought, time and work must have gone into organizing this event for so many people and it certainly was a great success. Even now, looking back, it all seems like a dream.

Not only did I meet many old friends from Europe again but also I made so many new friends in the U.S.

I wish I could find the right words to tell you how much I appreciate and enjoyed my visit. It will always remain a lovely memory of my stay in Georgia and of course my little AFES clock is a daily reminder of my friends across the ocean, far away.
