Here it is: the 2001 directory

DURATION!

It was prepared from the latest and most accurate information available. Perhaps there are some errors, mostly because a few members neglected to report changes in address, new telephone numbers and so on.

All changes should be reported to the Membership Chairs, Clayton and Scotty David, 19 Oak Ridge Pond, Hannibal, MO 63401-6539; phone 573-221-0441. This enables them to enter corrections on AFEES records and publish updates in the quarterly Communications. You can reach the Davids by e-mail at: davidafe@dstream.net

Escape and Evasion numbers are included for individuals debriefed in London or Paris up to the final days before VE Day. Therefore, they were generally assigned to men from the 8th and 9th Air Forces. E&E numbers were not assigned to airmen debriefed only at their group or Air Force.

Men liberated by Allied ground forces, Swiss internees, those who went down in the Balkans, or who became prisoners of war after evasion normally do not have an E&E number.

The number of the Air Force, and the group which individuals were assigned to when they became MIA are included in the directory listing. For the first time, some e-mail addresses are included.

"L" after a name denotes a Life Member. For people who regularly move with the seasons, W denotes Winter address; S indicates Summer address.

The last nine pages include known widows, friends and helpers who now live in the U.S. and Canada. "W" after the name indicates the widow of a former member who wishes to maintain contact.

"F" indicates dues-paying Friends while "FL" denotes Life Member Friends.

To keep your directory current, record changes in the margins as they are published in the newsletter.

AFEES COMMUNICATIONS IS THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE AIR FORCES ESCAPE & EVASION SOCIETY. AFEES IS A TAX-EXEMPT VETERANS ORGANIZATION UNDER IRS CODE 501 (C)(19). IT WAS FOUNDED IN 1964 AND IS CHARTERED IN THE STATE OF GEORGIA.

THE SOCIETY'S PURPOSE IS TO ENCOURAGE MEMBERS HELPED BY THE RESISTANCE ORGANIZATIONS OR PATRIOTIC NATIONALS TO CONTINUE EXISTING FRIENDSHIPS OR RENEW RELATIONSHIPS WITH THOSE WHO HELPED THEM DURING THEIR ESCAPE OR EVASION.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIRES THAT ONE MUST HAVE BEEN A U.S. AIRMAN, HE MUST HAVE BEEN FORCED DOWN BEHIND ENEMY LINES AND AVOIDED CAPTIVITY, OR ESCAPED FROM CAPTIVITY TO RETURN TO ALLIED CONTROL.

IN ADDITION TO REGULAR MEMBERSHIP, OTHER CATEGORIES OF MEMBERSHIP ARE HELPER MEMBERS, AND FRIEND MEMBERS.

History of AFEES dates back to '64

Before 1961, a Frenchman by the name of Leslie Atkinson, a Reserve Captain in the French Air Force, a member of the executive committee of the Army Resistance Organization, and a Helper for Allied airmen, was inspired by the brilliant work accomplished by the British Royal Air Force Escaping Society. It became his mission to create an association that would bring together American aviators who had escaped from enemy-occupied territory and their European Helpers.

With the help and advice of many people, Mr. Atkinson's efforts resulted in the "Air Force Rescue Association" being organized in France.

By July 1, 1963, the project had been approved by the U.S. Embassy in Paris, the U.S. Air Force in Europe, and the President of the French Republic. Leslie's personal determination to fulfill his objective kept him going. He advertised in Europe and found many Helpers; he advertised in the States and received a few replies.

In early 1961, Ralph Patton went back to France and traced his escape route to Guingamp. There he met Mathurin Branchous, the provincial Resistance leader who had a list of names and last-known addresses of Americans who had escaped by way of "Operation Bonaparte." When he returned home, Ralph contacted two other men on the list: John T. Emery and Fred T. Schmitt. The three men proceeded with plans for a reunion in Buffalo, N.Y., on May 15-16, 1964, to honor their war-time benefactors.

Letters went out and encouraging responses were received from evaders. Counting family members, 56 people attended the Buffalo reunion, including 32 evaders, 7 helpers and 1 from Canada. That list was the origin of the U.S. Air Forces Escape & Evasion Society roll.

In the January 1964 issue of the VFW magazine, Leslie's notice appeared on the same page with one from Ralph K. Patton seeking contacts from "those who escaped from Plouha on the Northern coast of Brittany." Contact was established between Ralph and Leslie and they began to communicate about their common interests. Mr. Atkinson gave Ralph the names of airmen he had in the U.S. and Leslie concentrated his efforts with the helpers he had identified in Europe.

Leslie Atkinson extended his contacts in Europe beyond France. He corresponded with officials in Belgium, Holland, Norway, Italy and other nations. Belgium, thanks to Comete, sent a delegation of 61 to the U.S. in 1974 for celebrations in Detroit, Washington and New York City.

Ralph Patton also developed ties with the Royal Escaping Society of Canada which resulted in a joint reunion in Toronto in 1995, a memorable event for all involved.

The AFEES list contained 33 names at the 8th Air Force Historical Society meeting in Phoenix in 1979 and 50 a year later when the 8th met in Orlando. In 1982, 28 helpers attended the meeting of the 8th in Cincinnati.

That was when Scotty David went to work to locate evaders in the U.S. Armed with a list of 3,000 names, she began her search. By 1986, AFEES had about 400 members and held the society's first annual meeting in Atlanta with 170 in attendance. By dint of personal perservance and hundreds of letters and telephone calls, Scotty somehow continues to discover new members.

Membership reached 949 in 1994, including some 175 men from the 15th Air Force and other units not on the original list. Some 56 years after World War II, members continue to be located. The current list of known helpers world-wide now exceeds 600.
