WWII: Saving the world

The generation now passing deserves our respect.

They're not getting any younger, and there are fewer every day — America's World War II generation.

They may seem like any other group of old people, mostly retirees now, just old men and women on porches, in nursing homes, parents and grandparents — but they're not.

When they were young, they saved the world.

Remarkable how completely ordinary it seems.

No other generation in world history can make that claim.

Not the Founders of the American Revolution, the ancient Greeks and Romans, nor the baby boomers — not even the early Christians.

Other generations had great struggles; other times had great challenges; but at best here and there were saviors of a town or a country, vanguards of unfulfilled promises, dreamers of visions.

America's World War II generation did not, as a group, achieve the heroism of an individual like Joan of Arc, nor is there any evidence that their "souls were touched by fire," as Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr. described the experience of the Civil War when he had grown old.

But isn't it fitting that victory in the most intense, deadly and important struggle in human history should seem sort of ordinary to those who won it, and those who benefited?

America's World War II generation saved the world because it had to be done, and no one else was available to do it.

It isn't that America's Vietnam generation, for example, both the pro and the con, couldn't or wouldn't have saved the world.

They didn't get the chance.

It isn't that Russians, who actually broke the Wehrmacht, or Chinese, who held Japan's best troops in a death grip, or British or French or any of the rest of the world's peoples, didn't win the war.

But they didn't save the world from an unspeakable global evil.

That was the Americans — when, as Winston Churchill said, the "new world came to the rescue of the old."

But they weren't vast forces of history, or legendary warriors. They weren't even all combat soldiers, or Rosie the Riveters.

They were ordinary people — my Uncle Ed, and your mom and dad — who lived in an extraordinary time.

So they did what had to be done.

There was a fair amount of ballyhoo last December, at the 50th anniversary of Pearl Harbor, although it got sticky with tensions in the current U.S.-Japan relationship.

In a few years, there will be lots of half-century anniversaries of V-E and V-J Day, maybe some prayerful ceremonies honoring liberation of the death camps.

The ex-Soviet republics might pause to remember that there was once a place called Stalingrad, and it was very important.

There will be fewer alive then who actually did those things, though.

So what that 50 years ago today, or last week, or next year, a lot of people killed and died for famous victories?

This isn't about anniversaries, or the all-World War II newsreel channel that every cable TV system seems to have. It's about the old guy you see on the street, with a little poppy in his lapel, or the blue-haired woman who forgets things and who rides the bus.

Let's take a long, last look at these people now, while we still have a chance.

No one has ever done anything like their achievement before — and God willing, no one will ever have to do anything like it again.

By Paul Donnelly, a Hyattsville, Md., writer.

A.F.E.E.S. REUNION

MAY 13TH THROUGH 16TH, 1993

THE ST. LOUIS MARRIOTT PAVILION DOWNTOWN

One Broadway, St. Louis, Missouri 63102 - Phone 314/421-1776

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Whether or not we agree with the political changes made in our country, thank God, they came from the ballot box and not at the point of a gun.

During the recent change in Washington, much has been said and repeated about Freedom. I wish they understood the real meaning of Freedom the way those of us who will be at our May reunion do. We know what it is to lose our Freedom. We know the cost of regaining it and the joy from success. Celebrating that success and how it happened is why we have these reunions with our Helpers. We encourage as many as possible to attend while we are able.

The schedule of activities and registration forms for your hotel and the reunion are in this issue of "Communications" awaiting your prompt attention. There are a few comments to add in behalf of all who are working to make this reunion memorable. The downtown location of the Marriott Pavilion Hotel puts our reunion within walking distance, or free shuttle of many of the most visited landmarks. Therefore we have allowed time for you to go sightseeing on your own or visit in the large hospitality room as your heart desires and your health permits. The National Park Service manages some of the sights and you may want to bring those "Golden Age Passports" for admission. For Baseball fans, the Cardinals will be in town and their stadium is just across the street. To visit Busch Brewery, Grant's Farm, or the Botanical Gardens requires transportation. We have not included these in the reunion package, but special arrangements can be made at your expense if you wish. Include a note with your registration. We will do what we can to assist you.

If you need a handicapped room, a wheel chair, or special assistance, be sure to make a notation on both your hotel registration and reunion registration forms.

St. Louis is serviced by several airlines and Amtrack. For us senior citizens Southwest Airlines offers a real bargain if you are willing to skip the amenities. For those who drive, just head for the "Arch" on the west bank of the Mississippi. Self parking is available for $9.00 per day and your car is always accessible. The St. Louis RV Park in the downtown area has full hook-ups, 24 hour security and free bus service to downtown.

We are expecting Helpers to come from several countries, as well as those now living in the United States. We expect to have some Yugoslav Helpers present. If you have any questions about Helpers be sure to contact me.

At the reunion there will be a special session for those interested in the 1994 trip to Europe and the French celebration in the Plouha area in Brittany. We are also planning a special award ceremony on Thursday for a famous flyer who was shot down and evaded in WWI. He returned to fight again.

Music for the Sunday night dance will be provided by a fourteen piece band that plays big band music of the 1940's.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

As many of you know Gil Millar has spent thousands of hours at his computer writing a program and entering millions of bytes of AFEES data. Gil has worked tirelessly for almost ten years getting our AFEES records in a form that will be easily accessible to any up to date personal computer. It is hoped that these computerized records can be made available to several institutions and will be of interest to future generations.

Gil's health has deteriorated in the past couple of weeks and he is no longer able to mother hen Harry Dolph and Ralph Patton who have functioned as back-up to Gil for several years. Harry Dolph is now our principal computer genius with Ralph Patton as his back-up. Harry is capable and competent but Ralph is computer ignorant and does what he is told.

AFEES is desperately in need of a member who is computer literate and willing to help us maintain the AFEES data base. We are looking for someone who has, or is willing to purchase, a 386, 25 mhz or better IBM clone with 2meg RAM and a hard disk of at least 80meg.

This is a fascinating and rewarding work. If you are at all interested please call, or drop a note to either Harry Dolph or Ralph Patton.

Ed Note: Not only that, but we ain't gettin' any younger..

HURRAH FOR TENNESSEE!

Air Force "Evadees" of any war, now living in Tennessee have free personal life time license plates if they have applied for them. Thanks to Ben L. O'dell who has a hard working State Senator by the name of Dewey "Rusty" Crowe who also lives in Johnson City, Tennessee. The people from the Volunteer State acknowledge that we had to volunteer to fly and to try to evade if we were shot down. These people are now directing their efforts for proper recognition at the National level where we have been seeking the same benefits as POW's just as we were so classified when we were successful at returning to our units.

Ben O'dell, in recognition of his efforts got #001. James Luton got #2 and Bill Petty got #5. In a circle around a set of wings are the words "Enemy Evadee". Ben and Jim, in that order were the first to send in pictures, but Bill sent in the best picture. It is difficult to take one with out reflections that interfere with reproduction.

The men are proud of their new license plates and those in Tennessee who made it possible are to be congratulated for a job well done without a massive number of people putting on political pressure. They did it because they felt it was the right thing to do.

GIL MILLAR AILING

Our Computer genius and Historian, Gil Millar, is ailing from the effects of emphysema. He is at home under the watchful eye of Frances, his wife and life-long friend. Gil is his same old self with a cheery word and advice to those who want it or will listen to it.

Gil started programming AFEES records many years ago with a list of men provided by Leslie Atkinson. Since then that list has grown to approximately 3,500 names, most of them legitimate but somehow paratroopers got mixed in and most of them have been culled out now, just leaving U.S. Army Air Force members who were shot down and did indeed evade or escape capture from the enemy.

Over the years he updated the files, corrected addresses, entered into the program new evaders and AFEES, and kept the files in perfect order.

When he became ill some six years ago or so, your editor, a stupid hacker as far as computers are concerned, joined forces with Gil and we slowly transferred all his records. We placed them in my computer's hard drive and on back-up disks. There are some 10,000,000 million bytes of information pertaining to AFEES or EVADERS plus several million more bytes making up the programs, definitions, menus, etc. This was a tremendous effort on Gil's part when you consider he practically had to learn the French language to translate some of Leslie Atkinson's records. He lives, sleeps and breathes our AFEES program. This organization owes a great debt of gratitude to Gil.

When you consider he had to teach a hacker like me the basics of Word Perfect, short-cuts running the computer itself, and making certain the information was stored properly with access to the information, he did a heck of a job. I thank him for it and I am grateful to him for his tutoring.

A card or letter would be nice to pat him on the back for the job he has done for us. Write to: Gil Millar, 2514 Talina Way, Houston, Texas 77080.

Thanks, Harry Dolph. editor.

LESLIE ATKINSON WRITES

Banyuls-s/Mer France - 12 February, 1993

Dear Harry: After your phone call I wrote to the helpers of Gil and I found in our "Friends List - Volume III,

Page 4 - Mr Felix Becquevort, Brussels

February 1st I received the answer of Mme Croonenberghes. Her exact address is 67 Rue Mazy, 5100 Jambes, Belgium. She was anxious because Gil writes her each New Year since 1945 and didn't this year. She writes the same day (January 30) to Frances and thanks U.S.

I have received later my letter to Felix Becquevort, 90 Blvd. St.

Michael, Brussels returned with the mention UNKNOWN. From the others, nothing. But they have not written me and are not obliged. I hope only they wrote to Frances.

Can you send me a note giving me the latest news on Gil.

I'm sorry you had so much trouble with your laser printer. The publication of AFEES Communication is the most important expression of the AFEES Association. With the meetings etc. I am looking forward to talking with you in Saint Louis.

"Sincere Amities" Leslie Atkinson

FROM RENE LONDOZ - BELGIUM

Dear Harry: To all the AFEES staff and all members of the AFEES my best wishes for a Merry and Joyous Christmas and a most happy New Year.

As friend Helper for life, I always enjoy receiving your publication, but unfortunately I have not received all the issues. In 1992 I received only Volume 6, Number 2. Numbers 1 and 3 I didn't receive. May I please insist to investigate if the publisher side or mailing side something could go wrong. I already asked Jim Goebel, one of my very good friends last year to inquire. I'm sure he did for last year all the missing editions were sent to me afterwards. The Belgian post office changed the area code of Genval from 1320 to the new 1332 which could be the trouble.

Sorry to bother you about this problem but the publications mean so much to me I don't want to miss a single issue.

My friendliest greetings, Rene

Ed. Note: I have changed your area code so perhaps now you will receive our publications.

WNEH IT RAINS, IT POURS, ETC.

I started working seriously on this Newsletter Monday, February 8th. On Tuesday morning, I got out of bed and sat down for breakfast about 7:00am when all of a sudden I got a nose bleed. Not your run of the mill nose bleeds but a real gusher which made my breakfast uneatable, the table unlookable and as my wife said, the kitchen and dining area looked like I had been a knife fight.

I called my wife at school and she came home. We wrapped my face in towels and drove the two miles to the hospital. They were unable to stop the bleeding. Finally an Eye Ear Nose and Throat man was called and he put a balloon in my nose, and the bleeding stopped but it left me in so much pain I could hardly stand it. I spent the next week in the hospital and on the fifth day he took the balloon out. I got my first breath of air through my nostril at that time.

A week after I got out of the hospital, I went to the same Doctor and he cleaned out my nose. I could breathe through both sides for the first time. So today, the 22nd, I have started the newsletter again. What can happen next? I'm sorry for the inconvenience but I will continue pumping the pages out on the ol' computer.

Signed: Yer'editor.

AUCTION NEWS FROM RUSS WEYLAND

February 19, 1993 - Howdy Neighbors - Regarding the auction in St. Louis. It has been decided to hold the silent auction on all items that will not be in the auctioneer's auction. It would be helpful to the committee if you could place an approximate dollar value on all items donated. The money raised is used to offset the amount needed to fund our visiting Helpers. Please consider this when you are bidding on items. At the discretion of the Committee, only items of over $25.00 value will be used for the Auctioneer. It is not the committee's intention to offend anyone in regard to choosing items for the silent auction. Remember it is to help pay for our WWII HELPERS!
Ed Note: Russ Weyland's Screw Machine plant burned down recently and he is very frustrated at his attempts to rebuild and get back into business again. I think he is due a vote of thanks for handling the auction with all this on his mind.

RENDEZVOUS 127-DIARY OF ANNE BRUSSELMANS Banned in the United States? Let's get a couple of facts straight. The diary was published in England in 1954 by Ernest Benn Ltd. and sold 25,000 copies throughout the world. I doubt very much General Carl Spaatz would have written the foreword to a book banned in his own country. Furthermore, a copy of the book is available at the Library of Congress!

After my appearance on the "This is your Life" program, my husband and I made a trip to the United States to visit our children who were in California at the time. My appearance on the CBS program "I've Got a Secret" was arranged by the PR department of Ernest Benn Ltd. As a matter of fact, it was quite a surprise to us to be escorted off the ship by staff of CBS on our arrival in New York.

I realize information can sometimes be distorted when repeated after almost forty years, but I feel compelled to set the records straight. Signed /Ann Brusselmans/

FROM ANNE BRUSSELMANS

January 19th, 1993 - Dear Harry: Referring to the telephone conversation you had yesterday with Yvonne, please find enclosed the correction to the article appeared in the last AFEES Newsletter concerning Paul Shipe.

I was sorry to hear of his passing, and wish to extend my sympathy to his wife and children. It is sad to think we never had a chance to meet again after the CBS appearance in 1958.

You may want to advise your members that the up-dated version of my diary is being printed and will be available in late March. The title is "Anne Brusselmans - My Mother".

Yvonne and I look forward to seeing you again in May at the Annual General Meeting in St Louis.

Best wishes to you and Pat, signed /Anne Brusselmans/

37TH/62ND TROOP CARRIER ASSOCIATION REUNION

I am pleased to announce the 37th/62nd Troop Carrier Association, a service branch of the United States Air Force, will hold their reunion in Albuquerque, NM from October 7th thru 10th, 1993. Please contact Byfield D. Gordon, 1117 Santa Ana Avenue S.E. Albuquerque, NM 87123-4234 - Phone 505/299-1071 - This is gonna' be a great one!

FROM M. MME ANDRE FORMICI

11 January, 1993 - Author France: Dear Mr. President: Every end of the year, faithfully you arrive in our memories and make us relive, with emotion and pride, the extraordinary events of our youth! Thank you wholeheartedly for your wishes and please accept ours for good health to you and all AFEES.

Also thanks for your "Communications" Newsletter. Its a historical treasure and an exceptional bond. Sincerely, Andre.

Long Overdue

New York, NY December 11, 1992 - Dear Harry: I told you I'd write a story! Here it is! Now, Now, most important, most.

You have my permission to re-read it, cut any part out of it, correct any misspelled words, English errors, slang, punctuation marks, etc.

Just correct the h--- out of it

I'm not great on typing and have rewritten and typed this three times and I promised myself this would be the last! So, I hope it will do!

With best regards and best wishes of the season.

Gil Shawn

"TOO OLD, TOO SOFT FOR THE PEACE CORPS??"

The most popular conception of the peace Corps -- That it was President Kennedy's idea, and that it attracts only idealistic college kids who perform essential work -- grossly romanticizes and organization that, charged with ambiguous objectives, struggles to live up to its hallowed reputations. I learned from personal experience that many volunteers are not of that ilk at all...and work and live quite comfortably. Many volunteers neither toughed it out in bug-ridden huts nor toiled in some back-breaking work! They enjoyed fairly comfortable homes and performed jobs ranging from teaching school to cataloging plant species to engineering. They have not been youthful either. In recent years the percentage of "Seniors", those fifty and over has steadily climbed. the recent group of Peace Corps that were being sent to Eastern Europe made up an average of forty-one years! It's not the Peace Corps of "Yesteryears". Married couples are welcome and needed in big cities for environmental, small business and urban development.

How do I join? Do I want to?...I'd like to find out anyway! The first step is to write to the Peace Corps office. You will receive and application and some simple Medical and Dental examinations (paid by the Peace Corps). When you are finally accepted, you have six months in which to get ready. If you have had any connections with the Intelligence Services you will be AUTOMATICALLY disqualified! You cannot choose the country where you want to go..instead you will be given ten days to decide if you want to go or not. If you "YES" everything you'll get a date where you'll meet those going with you and a ticket to a city. In approximately three days you take off for the country chosen! You're traveling with the Peace Corps and are given a Life Insurance policy. You will be paid a living allowance (not too much, not too little, but just enough). You will attend a Peace Corps school for language, cultures and assimilation. I went through it all. I thought I was joining a vast young Army, even if it's true that I'm slightly grey-haired. Things are pretty good in the Peace Corps and administrators make sure it stays that way. It has it's tiny minute and smattering touch of the U.S. Army, only sweeter, calmer, charming, loving and tender and you can quit at anytime...anytime at all...no excuse required. Of those in the Peace Corps, thirty percent do not finish the entire two years of duty.

I served in Kenya which is rather modern compared to other African countries. Yes, I saw lions, elephants and monkeys but only on my off duty time. We were allowed twenty-four days a year for vacation. Mainly I worked with "Women's groups". The groups are a Kenyan Institution. The women are all friends and they are registered, have a set of "By-Laws", are given a number and choose a name. There is nothing to hold them back..though destitute, they are desperate and miserably poor (legally landless), women. However they lead a peasant life and we all know it's a life committed completely to survival! The town attracted a large number of families daily. Men are searching for a monetized subsistence (average income is $300 per year). Many of them are Maasai, a tribe once known for its glorious past. But not any more! The different tribes are colorful and dramatic in their "National" native clothing..but drab in their everyday "wrong vestments".

I've learned much of the history of the "Peace Corps" and what better "Jobs" are available for members of the Escape and Evasion Society! The Peace Corps is not a bad deal if you ever want to see a reticulated giraffe or want to tell a Reedbuck from a Steenbuck..come along. However the first thing you should want to be is a volunteer in the Peace Corps. To present, take upon oneself, be gratuitous and become the master of cordiality! The Peace Corps is seeking skilled volunteers for overseas tours. While no upper age limit is imposed, candidates must meet recruitment, placement and Medical requirements. So come along..You'll learn what Swahilli means.. "Ninapenda sana Kenya" CONTACT: U.S. Peace Corps, Public
